THE OLD TESTAMENT: GOD'S STORY OF REDEMPTION

Key Scripture: Luke 24:27, 44

27 “And beginning at Moses and all the Prophets, He expounded to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself.”

44 “Then He said to them, ‘These are the words which I spoke to you while I was still with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms concerning Me.’”

The Old Testament is more than a collection of ancient stories. It reveals who God is, how He calls His people to live, and how His plan to redeem humanity unfolds. Jesus taught that the Law of Moses, the Prophets, and the Psalms spoke about Him (Luke 24:44). When we read the Old Testament, we see God's promises and discover how they lead us to Jesus.

The story begins in Genesis, where God creates the world and makes humanity in His image (Genesis 1:1, 27). After sin enters the world, God gives a promise of victory over evil (Genesis 3:15). He calls Abraham and promises that through him all the families of the earth will be blessed (Genesis 12:1–3). From the beginning, God's purpose reaches beyond one person or nation: He is working to bring people back to Himself.

In Exodus, God delivers Israel from slavery and provides for them in the wilderness. The Passover lamb points ahead to Jesus, whom the New Testament calls “our Passover” (Exodus 12:1–14; 1 Corinthians 5:7). God gives His people His instruction and teaches them to trust and obey Him (Deuteronomy 6:4–9). The books of history show both the blessings of following God and the consequences of turning away from Him. Yet even when His people fail, God remains faithful and continues to call them back.

The Old Testament also points to Jesus through its kings and prophets. God promises David that his kingdom will be established forever (2 Samuel 7:12–16), and the prophets speak of the coming Savior who would bring hope and peace (Isaiah 9:6–7; Isaiah 53:4–6; Micah 5:2). These promises find their fulfillment in Jesus, the Son of David and the Savior of the world.

The Old Testament still strengthens our faith today. Scripture was given to teach us, correct us, and equip us to live according to God's will (2 Timothy 3:16–17). Its accounts remind us that God is holy, merciful, faithful, and worthy of our trust.

As we read, we can ask: What does this passage show me about God? What does it teach me about His ways? How does it point me to Jesus?

Scriptures for further reading: Genesis 3:15; Genesis 12:1–3; Exodus 12:1–14; Deuteronomy 6:4–9; 2 Samuel 7:12–16; Isaiah 53:4–6; Luke 24:27, 44; Romans 15:4; 2 Timothy 3:16–17.

MEET OUR PASTORS

CHURCH WITH A DIFFERENCE

The Lord sent us to West Palm Beach to establish a base for revival and reaching nations and the harvest of souls in April 2017. We are equippers and mobilizers. We want to see believers empowered to reach their full potential in Christ. River WPB is place that will contend for the move of the Spirit of God. We believe in being a genuine Book of Acts Church.

We are both from Sunni Muslim backgrounds. We both became the first born-again Christians in our respective families. After receiving a baptism of fire and an apostolic calling, we launched out to the nations. During 30 years of full-time ministry, we have established many churches, Bible Schools, television ministry and carried revival to 25 nations. The Lord said, "Go to America! Get ready for a Great Awakening! Get my people ready for the Final Days! Mobilize many! Equip and cover those I have called into unique and diverse ministries."

We invite you to be a part of what God wants to do in Palm Beach County and beyond.

We love you and pray God's richest blessings upon your life.

Love and Blessings,

Corey & Rose Erman
